

From: David Walser
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 11:16pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I believe that the proposed Microsoft antitrust settlement does little to advance the cause of justice. My primary concern is that the remedy of requiring Microsoft to donate computers and software to schools will damage the competitiveness of one of the few markets Microsoft does not currently dominate. From which company will these schools purchase software once the donated software becomes obsolete (next year)? Microsoft.

David K. Walser
2136 N. Ashbrook
Mesa, AZ 85213
480/615-9252